Don't you wish you had the assurance that, even if you ended up in a risky situation, you'd know no harm would come to you? Does that kind of peace of mind sound unreal? Or unlikely on this planet? Well, I have news for you: such protection and such peace do exist, even in this plagued and troubled world.

You can find safety and serenity even in the midst of turmoil, when the proverbial winds of fear blow about you, and the currents of worry threaten to sweep you away. That's because I, Jesus Christ, the Lord of the Universe, am the author of true peace. You can rely on Me in the middle of any storm, any disaster, any tragedy, or any disease that threatens to harm you or those you love.

I came to earth over 2,000 years ago on a mission to give people peace and faith, and I am offering you the same now. I watch over you as a parent would an only child, for I am concerned about every detail of your life. I am here for you even in the midst of difficulty. I want to give you faith and strength, comfort and reassurance. I also wish to help you be a calming influence on others.

However, I require your trust, and I need you to rely on Me. I also need you to pray because that activates My ability to keep you and My power to heal and to save. Your prayers are powerful because they connect you with My realm—the realm of miracles where anything is possible. They enable Me to place a force field of protection around you and your loved ones.

Wonderful and supernatural peace, as well as supernatural protection, can be found by calling out to Me. You could pray something like this:

Jesus, I need peace of mind and heart. I need calm and trust in spite of what's happening around me. I need stability. Please keep and protect me and those I care about. Please enter my heart, my spirit, and my life and fill me with calm, trust, and peace. I need faith to make it safely through this time no matter what's going on around me or inside me. Jesus, I also ask You to become part of me and my life from now on, so that Your spirit can live within me and help me to grow in love and faith.

If you pray sincerely to Me, either with the words above or with your own words that fit
